WASHINGTON POST AND TIMES HERALD APR 1 0 198

Trial Starts in Mayflower

The Mayflower Hotel bug-? terday in the U.S. District statement. Court. Three private detective Washington policeman, John tives are charged with illegal C. Bennett, of Hyattsville, tions Commission's rules and tive. regulations—broadcasting and Bennett said he was presoner at ing the small FM transmitter without a license over to former police detections. and broadcasting on a fre-tive John A. Jones.

before U.S. District Court former police inspector Judge Edward A. Tamm, are John J. Frank, Oliver W. Shimon did not testify Angelone and John W. Leon.

Angelone and John W. Leon.
Assistant United States Attorney Harold J. Sullivan, Sullivan,
Shimon is under indictional states and the device to Angelone.
Shimon is under indictional states and the device to Angelone. who has handled grand jury investigation into commercial espionage which has gone on for two years, told the jury that the Government would prove the defendants illegally operated the bug between March 25 and April 1, 1962.

He said the evidence would

He said the evidence would, show they rented a room. near the hotel suite of San Francisco lawyer Malcolm P. Dungan. Dungan was representing the El Paso Natural Gas Co. in hearings before the Federal Power Commission for a multi-million-dollar gas line franchise to southern California.

Other companies were competing for the franchise. Important business meetings were held in the lawyer's rooms, Sullivan said.

A small, FM transmitter was found in the room on April 1, 1962, taped under a coffee table and receiving equipment; was found; in a nearby room.

Defense attorney ging case went to trial yes Carey made no opening monitoring of a lawyer's suite Md., who identified the bug-in the hotel. ging device found in the The trio was indicted for Mayflower "as appearing to three misdemeanor violations his former roommate, Wayne of the Federal Communica-G. Barber, a private detecquency reserved for airliners. Jones told the jury he The defendants, being tried turned the device over to

Shimon is under indict-

CPYRGHT